Proposal for a voluntary contribution to Witnessing Together in Geneva

Geneva, 2016 March

Dear friends,

For a number of years, the John Knox International Reform Centre has financed part of Witnessing Together in Geneva's (WTIG¹) activities. Other institutions also give financial support to WTIG, in particular the Protestant Church of Geneva (EPG) and the World Council of Churches (WCC-COE).

At our meeting on 26th January 2016², representatives of churches and communities accepted that their churches and communities give a voluntary financial contribution to WTIG of CHF 100 to support the WTIG programme.

The council of Witnessing Together in Geneva suggests that this contribution be included in your community's budget. The amount will be paid by to JKIRC's bank³ account with the reference "TEAG programme". Electronic payment will limit the administrative charges.

The council hope that you will receive this suggestion favourably and send you their greetings in Christ.

Reverend Gabriel Amisi

² Extrait du Procès-verbal de la 80^e rencontre TEAG, tenue au centre John Knox le 26 janvier 2016 : "Afin d'étayer les recettes, Carlos Sintado (membre du conseil de ministère TEAG) suggère à l'assemblée, que les communautés qui participent à TEAG versent un montant symbolique de Frs.100.-- par an. Ce don gratuit, en signe d'adhésion totale à TEAG. Il cite librement l'Ecclésiaste, « il y a un temps pour tout, un temps pour recevoir et un temps pour donner ». La gestion économique fait partie de ces temps. G. Amisi propose que cette suggestion soit l'objet d'un vote. La proposition est acceptée à l'unanimité, sauf une abstention."
