

Illustration: courtesy of Gelise McCullough/gelise.org

World AIDS Day 2017

Inviting you to a full-day event at the Ecumencial Centre in Geneva, featuring a commemorative service, an interactive exhibition and a panel discussion on the lives and rights of children and adolescents living with HIV.

Date: 1 December 2017

Time: 08.45-18.00

Location: Ecumenical Centre,
150 Route de Ferney, Geneva

How much do you know about HIV and AIDS?
Why does it keep happening?
How can we help children and teenagers like us?

On 1 December, you can learn more, right from the people who are doing the helping.

All ages and faiths are welcome.
Children and teenagers, come and learn together with us.

World AIDS Day 2017: Let's make HIV powerless!

Programme

8.45-9.45: World AIDS Day commemoration service

10.00-11.30: Launch of art exhibit

Kisumu - Nairobi - Geneva - art from them to us
Panel discussion on the lives and rights of children and adolescents living with HIV

11.30-12.30: Light refreshment

13.30-15.30: Interactive workshop

The lives of children, adolescents and HIV explained through a painting session (activities for children and adolescents)

16.30-18.00: Vernissage: Painting for Education

The artwork will be sold to raise funds for next year's school fees for HIV positive children and adolescents in Kenya

World Council of Churches